GORE APPRECIATED IN PROVINCES OF THE EAST

Under the caption of "The Blind Senator" The New Rochelle Press published in a famous town near New York City, has the following to say:

In our opinion one of the most remarkable men in many respects that lives today is Senator Thomas P. Gore, of Oklahoma. "The Blind old bard of Scio's happy isle" had made considerable fame before he lost his sight and the other greatest blind man of the ages probably, John Milton, did not lose his sight until he had passed his forty-fourth year. Gore became blind when he was only eleven years of age, but he did not cry out "I am blind and can accomplish nothing in life" but on the other hand he determined that he would accomplish something, and when it is considered that his education, which is a broad one, all came through the eyes of others—their readings to him—it is a source of wonder to all who know him well how he prepared himself so thoroughly for the position he holds as a national lawmaker. He has reached the loftiest station in the gift of the people except that of President, and what a handicap he has had to contend with. His memory is a wonder, and his mind is as clear as the unclouded sun of noonday. Think of his delivering a speech of many hours duration in the Senate into statistical matter carrying figures running into the thousands and hundreds of thousands without a single mistake. Not a figure wrong. Is that not wonderful when it is considered how the storage battery of his brain took in this vast array of statistical matter from the readings he had listened to from the lips of a devoted wife? The United States Senate is composed of a body of men whom the X-rays of worth appraisal is cast without fear or favor, and the eight important committees on which Mr. Gore has been placed, including agricultural and forestry, of which he is chairman, and those of finance, immigration, and interstate commerce, proclaim the ratings that were accorded him as well-equipped legislator. The amendment he secured to the agricultural appropriation bill looking to the establishment of farm credits will no doubt result in legislation that will give him lasting fame, since it will give high lasting fame, since it will bring great benefit to millions of farm toilers. But we started out to speak of the unusual make-up of the man, and not the result which that wonderful make-up has brought about.

A reporter of the Philadelphia North American who several years ago, listened to a speech made in the Senate by Gore when the Aldrich-Vreeland currency bill was under discussion, spoke of the rush of Senators from the cloak rooms to their seats when the word came that a great speech was being made, and the correspondent in a two-column article to his paper containing flattering tributes to the great Oklahoman used this exclamation: "Thank God I've seen a man this day!"

And every broad-minded citizen of this great Republic should find it in his heart to say: "Thank God that this man from whom all the beauties of the earth are hidden, had the will the capacity, the hopefulness, the desire to be helpful to his fellows so strongly implanted within him, that his labors are as unremitting as if no lasting night environed him."

All honor to the blind Senator from Oklahoma.

Miss Nell Granlee of Chickasha spent Sunday with friends in the city.

THEO. G. OELKE FOR COURT CLERK

We are authorized to announce Theo. G. Oelke for Court Clerk.

It will be remembered that the last Legislature passed a bill consolidating the District Clerk and County Court Clerk under the name of Court Clerk—There is no question but this consolidation will cause some confusion at first. Mr. Oelke has had experience in both offices, consequently he will be in a better position to keep down confusion than a new man.

L. N. Vedder for County Clerk

We are authorized to announce L. N. (Teddy) Vedder as a candidate for County Clerk, subject to the Democrat Primary. Mr. Vedder has been County Clerk for the past two years and has given entire satisfaction. He has worked in the County Clerk's office for seven years before being elected Clerk and we do not think we are exaggerating when we say he is the best qualified man to fill this office in the county. Mr. Vedder served five years as Deputy Clerk under the writer of this article and we believe we are competent to pass on his qualifications. It is an established rule that where a man serves one term in an office and gives satisfaction that a second nomination is due him by his party and we think Mr. Vedder is certainly entitled to this honor.
